

Plenary Speakers

Emi Emilia

(SFL in Indonesian Context)

Frances Christie

(Learning language, learning through language and learning about language)

James Martin

(Telling stories: glocalising narration in genre-based literacy programs)

Christian Matthiessen

Siti Wachidah

(The genre-based English curriculum for the Indonesian high school: opening ways to learner-centred activities to understand and produce English texts in the face of contextual differences and variations)

Meg Gebhard

(Re-conceptualizing teachers' work in the context of global educational change: An SFL perspective)

Chang Chenguang

(Modeling translation as re-instantiation)

Orlando Vian Jr.

(Glocality, complexity and SFL in educational practices in the South)

Post-Congress Speakers

James Martin & Susan Hood
(Appraisal workshop)

Mira Kim
(Translation Choices: An SFL perspective)

Frances Christie & Harni Kartika
(Reading and writing imaginative English genres)

David Rose & Claire Acevedo
(Designing teacher training for genre based reading and writing programs)

Pauline Jones & Trish Wekees
(Practical strategies for teaching reading and writing of factual texts with the Genre Pedagogy Cycle)

International Systemic Functional Congress

ISFC 2016

19 July 2016—27 July 2016

Learning Language, Learning through Language,
Learning about Language:
Glocalising Systemic Functional Linguistics

Jointly organised by:
Indonesia University of Education & Center for Language Strategy and Diplomacy Development,
Language Agency, Ministry of Education and Culture
Supported by:
Ministry of Research, Technology and Higher Education